I just bought the Koss KS3101 Progressive Scan DVD Home Theater System but I've had so many problems with it, I just took it back for a refund. I can understand why people get are so frustrated. The $140 price tag was a dead giveaway that it was crap. The DVD play skips chapters as you watch a movie and doesn't even know when the disc is in.

Koss has made decent headphones, but I wouldn't put much faith in any of their other products from what I've used from them, seen of them, and heard about them. If you are after a home theater system, stick with what has a reputation. It may be more expensive, but the investment typically lasts for the long haul.
