"..to grasp your one necessity and not let it go, to dangle from it limp wherever it takes you. Then even death, where you're going no matter how you live, cannot you part. Seize it and let it seize you up aloft even, till your eyes burn out and drop.." In David's story there is strong seizing and there is limp dangling. And it's incredible to see.

If you are not a kung fu or martial arts fan do not be put off by the title, there is little actual fighting in each episode. Dont expect people jumping 50 feet in the air and other ridiculous things you may get in a Jackie Chan movie. Each episode is like a moral tale. Caine comes in peace but rarely finds it. Five star.
